

Hush

Hush - All the words have been said today
Hush - It's time to put them all away
Hush - All the stories have been read
Hush - As I tuck you into bed

'Cause if you're quiet, you might hear the distant sound
Of kings and queens inside your head from other lands
You might hear the wanderers of magic skies
And bells that chime away behind your eyes

Hush - All the games have been played today
Hush - It's time to put them all away
Hush - It's quiet time for everyone
Hush - Now the moon is the new sun

'Cause if you're quiet, you might hear the distant sound
Of kings and queens inside your head from other lands
You might hear the wanderers of magic skies
And bells that chime away behind your eyes
